BEST IN SHOW followed by BEST PUPPY IN SHOW

Our Judge: David J. Kirkland, AKC Judge

My involvement in the dog fancy began in 1973 as a breeder/owner/handler and then professional handler of Miniature Schnauzers. In 1994, I retired from breeding and exhibiting Miniature Schnauzers to judge after finishing dozens of AKC champions including Group, Specialty and National Specialty winners.

In 1994, we acquired our first Cavalier and they continue to occupy our lives to the present. We have also bred and owned champions in Japanese Chin and Tibetan Spaniels.

I am approved to judge Best in Show, Junior Showmanship, all Terrier, Toy and Non-Sporting breeds, the Working Group Schnauzers, and most of the Herding Group. I have enjoyed many interesting assignments including the National Specialties of all three sizes of Schnauzers and National/Regional specialties in all of the three Groups I judge. Other highlights include judging in Canada, Ireland, England, Denmark, Sweden and judging at both the AKC and Westminster Kennel Club shows multiple times. In 2004, I judged the Schnauzer Club of Great Britain for the first time and I am thrilled to be invited back again!

I am an honorary member of the New Brunswick KC, a member of American Miniature Schnauzer Club, American Cavalier King Charles Spaniel Club, Central Carolina Cavalier King Charles Spaniel Club, Tibetan Spaniel Club of America, Moore County Kennel Club, and Cary Kennel Club. I have served as the chairman of Judges Education for the American Miniature Schnauzer Club and am currently a member of the Judges Education Committee for the American Cavalier King Charles Spaniel Club.

Professionally, I worked for GlaxoSmithKline Pharmaceuticals for twenty-seven years before taking early retirement. In addition to judging, I work part-time coordinating the music for all liturgies at our local church.
